MRS. L. C. BROWN PASSES AWAY

Many friends in Tonopah will learn with regret that Mrs. Louise C. Brown died Sunday morning in Los Angeles where she has been a resident the past two years with her daughter, Miss Anne Brown. Besides her daughter she left surviving three sons residing in Tonopah, Hugh Henry Brown, the lawyer, and R. Fred Brown and Will T. Brown, the brokers.

The decedent was the widow of the late Robert McCutcheon Brown. She was a native of Pittsburgh, Pa., and in her seventy-seventh year. She resided in Tonopah at various periods during recent years and was held in high esteem by a wide circle of friends. She was a woman of unusual force of intellect and character and possessed of a happy and youthful disposition and charming manner.

Hugh Henry Brown and Will T. Brown left this morning for Los Angeles. Fred Brown, who left for the east, was overtaken on the train near Oden by a telegram, so that he roughly limited over the Salt Lake line and continued on to the bereaved home.
